Skill enhancement in academic, technical and organizational aspects

Report on capability building and skill enhancement initiatives

St. Joseph's Training College has focused on the all round development of student-teachers. Our institution provides different programs that help for the capability building and skill enhancement of student-teachers.

Student-teachers divide into different endorsement groups of ten members and each group plan and execute different morning activities in each week, such as Morning assembly, Thought for the day, Day celebration, Book review and Yoga. These activities help the student-teachers to enhance their confidence to address students. In the thought for the day program, one student from a group presents any one of the present social issues. Each student from other groups can criticize by giving their valuable points as supporting or opposing statements. This program gives opportunities to the students to face the audience with confidence. In the day celebration program, student-teachers from any group organized the celebration of important days of eminent persons or events. In the Book review program, a student presents a review of an eminent person's novel that the student likes the most and this motivates the students to read books and novels and helps to develop reading habits among students. In Yoga, student-teachers practice different yogasanas. This helps them to lead a disciplined life and to keep a healthy body.

As a part of the curriculum, student-teachers train in different skills by conducting workshops in art and drama, E-content development, EPC, making of socially useful products and preparation of teaching-learning materials. Art and drama workshops help the student-teachers to get an idea of how to organize arts and drama. Training for E-content development helps to develop student-teacher's ability to create their own E-content and equip them for online classes. Various EPC activities and programs help the student-teachers to develop and enhance their different professional capacities. Student-teachers provide opportunities to make socially useful products by using the locally available materials. This helps them to reuse the waste materials and to utilize their leisure time effectively. Preparation of teaching and learning materials help the student-teachers to enhance their creative thinking ability and to take classes effectively.

Various opportunities are provided to student teachers to enhance their skills as teachers. Practicing sessions as Micro teaching helps them to develop their skills and to integrate these skills in teaching. Discussion, Initiatory school Experience, and Criticism classes help the student-teachers to proficient in their teaching skills. Demonstration classes by experts help the students to know more about how to take a class effectively. Student-teachers train to present seminar papers on various topics related to education and this develops confidence, critical thinking and reasoning power of student-teachers. Classes taken by resource persons on different topics help the student-teachers to get more information on these various topics and to lead a disciplined life. All these activities help the student-teachers for their professional life and they can impart the values and life skills to the next generation.

Communicating with persons of different disabilities Sravana Bodavathkaranacampaign

(27-02-2023)

Objectives:

To Raise Awareness about Hearing Health

To Empower Community Engagement

On February 27th, 2023, St. Joseph's Training College orchestrated a vital hearing awareness campaign in collaboration with a dedicated team from Chavakkad Government Hospital. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about the importance of hearing health and the prevention of hearing loss within the community. The campaign was meticulously planned and executed, leveraging various educational materials, interactive sessions, and informative discussions. Through engaging activities and presentations, participants were enlightened about the significance of regular hearing screenings, proper ear care practices, and the potential risks associated with prolonged exposure to loud noises. Moreover, the event provided a platform for individuals to ask questions, share experiences, and seek guidance from healthcare professionals. By fostering dialogue and disseminating valuable information, the campaign at St. Joseph's Training College effectively empowered individuals to take proactive steps towards preserving their hearing health and promoting a culture of awareness and advocacy within the community.

Report on Visit to Amrita Speech and Hearing School, Thrissur

(02-03-2023)

Objectives:

1. To observe the assembly pattern followed at the school.
2. To study the classroom interaction and student participation.
3. To understand the method of teaching and learning processes implemented.
4. To review the evaluation methods used for assessing students.

The visit to Amrita Speech and Hearing School, Thrissur, on 02-03-2023 was organized to provide an opportunity for teacher trainees to understand how teaching and learning processes are adapted to suit children with speech and hearing impairments. The school is known for its inclusive approach to education and specialized strategies to support the needs of its students.

The morning assembly was conducted in a structured and inclusive manner. It began with a silent prayer, allowing students to focus and center themselves. Visual cues and sign language were actively used, ensuring that all students could participate effectively. Teachers and students worked collaboratively during the assembly, making it a platform for practicing communication skills and building community spirit. In the classroom, the interaction between teachers and students was highly individualized. The teacher employed a combination of spoken language, sign language, and visual aids to communicate with the students. Group activities were also conducted, promoting peer interaction and collaboration. The classroom environment was supportive, with teachers being patient and attentive to each student's needs, encouraging active participation. The school uses a multisensory approach to teaching, which combines visual, auditory, and kinesthetic learning techniques. Teachers relied on visual aids such as charts, pictures, and videos to explain concepts. Students were provided with opportunities to engage in hands-on activities, which helped reinforce learning. The lessons were tailored to meet the diverse needs of students, ensuring that each child could grasp the subject matter at their own pace. The evaluation methods were continuous and formative, focusing on the progress made by each student rather than standardized tests. Teachers used individual assessments and observations to gauge students' understanding. Evaluation was also based on the development of communication skills, social interaction, and the ability to engage with tasks independently. Teachers provided detailed feedback to the students and their caregivers to ensure they were aware of the progress being made. The visit to Amrita Speech and Hearing School was an enriching experience for the students and faculty of St. Joseph's Training College. The inclusive and student-centered approaches observed during the visit highlighted the importance of adaptability in education. The methods of teaching and evaluation used at the school can serve as valuable models for educators working with children with special needs.

How to Prepare Thematic/Conceptual Papers for Presentation in Seminars and Conferences

(09-12-2023)

Objectives:

To Enhance Skills in Scholarly Paper Crafting

To Develop Competence in Research Methodologies

On December 9th, 2023, St. Joseph's Training College Pavaratty hosted a pivotal online class, delving into the art of crafting thematic and conceptual papers for presentation at seminars and conferences. Dr. Premachandran P, a distinguished academician, led the session, guiding participants through the intricate process of formulating scholarly papers that not only engage audiences but also contribute substantially to the academic discourse. The class likely emphasized the importance of identifying relevant themes, conducting comprehensive literature reviews, and structuring arguments cohesively to effectively communicate ideas. Attendees likely gained insights into selecting appropriate methodologies, organizing data, and integrating theoretical frameworks to enhance the quality and impact of their presentations. By the end of the session, participants were likely equipped with valuable strategies and techniques to navigate the complexities of academic writing and presentation, empowering them to contribute meaningfully to their respective fields of study.
