6.3.2 POLICY DOCUMENT

ON

PROVIDING FINANCIAL SUPPORT TO TEACHERS FOR ATTENDING CONFERENCE, WORKSHOP AND SEMINARS

Preamble: The policy providing financial assistance to teachers is active to support their participation in conferences and workshops held by prestigious institutes, universities, and colleges, and to cover the membership fees of professional organizations.

Objectives

1. To motivate teaching staff to present research papers at prestigious national and international conferences.
2. To provide opportunities for teaching staff to engage in discussions on recent advancements, emerging challenges, and future directions in their respective fields.
3. To promote teaching, learning, research, and extension activities, as well as improve governance through participation in conferences and workshops.
4. To strengthen their academic qualifications in accordance with professional standards.

Policy on Attending Conferences/ Workshops/ and Seminars

- Our institution provides financial support to teachers for research and professional development. Financial aid schemes and initiatives for the welfare of the faculty are designed and implemented under the guidance of St. Joseph's Educational and Charitable Trust.
- Our college offers financial support to teachers for attending seminars, conferences and workshops.
- Our college provides a grant of RS 20000/- for each edited book published by faculty members, as part of its initiative to foster research aptitude and promote a strong research culture among the teaching staff.

This financial policy will be reviewed and updated as needed to adapt to changing circumstances and financial priorities, with the approval of the management council in response to the demands of the time.

Institutional policy document on providing financial supported to teachers

The primary objectives of our financial policy are to ensure transparency in financial matters and to use funds wisely. Financial records, including cash books, vouchers, and receipts, are maintained for all transactions. The main accountant of our college is responsible for overseeing the institution's financial operations.

Our institution also provides financial support to teachers for research and professional development. Financial aid schemes and initiatives for the faculty's welfare are designed and implemented under the guidance of St. Joseph's Educational and Charitable Trust.

Our college offers financial support to teachers in such a way that an annual allowance of Rs. 1500 is provided to teachers for attending seminars, conferences, and workshops.

This financial policy will be reviewed and updated as needed to adapt to changing circumstances and financial priorities, with the approval of the management council in response to the demands of the time.
